

EMR SHINN OF BRAZIL IS KILLED

RIGHT CAR ON INTERURBAN LINE STRUCK MAN NEAR STOP HUTCHINSON.

LYING ON THE TRACK

Emr T. Shinn of 419 South Walnut street, Brazil, was struck by the bound freight on the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern Union line at Hutchinson stop, about eleven o'clock on Thursday night, and instantly killed. The freight car was in charge of conductor Vaughn and Motorman who reported that Shinn was on the track when the car came. The motorman saw what he thought was a newspaper spread between the rails, but was horrified to realize a few minutes later it was a man. However it was too late then to stop the car, and an effort was made to do so. A man was struck with the full force of the car's speed and knocked from the track. The car was stopped and the body removed and Coroner R. J. Gillespie was notified. The body was brought to this city and taken to the coroner's office. An examination of the clothing and personal effects revealed that the man was E. T. Shinn and a memorandum book in which his name was given, with the description and a request to notify Mrs. Elizabeth Shinn in case of accident. Shinn was seen on the streets of Greencastle Wednesday and it is believed that he started to walk from his home to a fishing camp on the creek on Thursday morning and that he became ill and fell in the track. It was a cripple and this theory is given credence over one that he was lured.

It is thought also that Shinn was consumptive, as he appeared to be afflicted with the disease and in the memorandum book was a newspaper clipping in regard to open air treatment for consumption. The Herald notified persons at Brazil and arrangements will be made for taking the body to that place. Shinn was a married man his wife being Anna Purcell Shinn and it is supposed that the Elizabeth Shinn mentioned is his mother. His skull was crushed and his arms were broken in the accident. His father is John Shinn. It is thought that Shinn was with a fishing party on the creek as he left Brazil with that intention. Coroner Gillespie was asked to send the body to the father at Brazil.

JUDGE GIVE HIM A CHANCE

If Kiefer Does Not Stay Sober Jail Sentence Will Become Effective

Martin Kiefer, who has been in jail for the past week on the charge of stealing a bed spread belonging to William Christenberry which he sold for thirty-five cents to buy whiskey, obtained his liberty from the Clay Circuit Court on his promise of good behavior although he did not tell the court where he purchased the 35 cents worth of whiskey on which he got drunk and selling the bed spread. When Kiefer was arraigned last night Judge Rawley told him there was a prison sentence of one to five years staring him in the face and he would tell where he purchased the 35 cents worth of whiskey. Kiefer refused to tell and was sent back to jail. Wednesday morning he was again arraigned in the circuit court and Judge Rawley assessed as a penalty for his offense six months in jail or a fine of $50 but the sentence was suspended on the promise of Kiefer to remain sober. If he fails to do so he will be taken to jail to serve his sentence.

Mrs. Dr. Pollom, of Cayuga, who was here for the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Frank Stroube, returned to her home Friday.

HEAVY FREEZE MAKES HAVOC

SATURDAY NIGHT PUTS END TO HOPES OF FRUIT AND DOES MUCH OTHER DAMAGE IN THE COUNTY.

COLD WEATHER CONTINUE

On Saturday night the event that had been dreaded and feared since the warm weather of March first started the fruit buds, happened. The weather man juggled the thermometer down to about six degrees below freezing and completely nipped in the bud both the hopes of the fruit growers of the county and also the fruit. Ice was formed to the thickness of a half inch, and this cold coming when the fruit buds and young fruit were wet did untold damage.

At first it was hoped that the fact that the sun did not strike the frozen buds might be of some help, but an examination of cherry, peach, pear and apple Sunday showed the center of all the fruits blackened and killed by the frost. Grapes suffered most heavily, the new growth upon which the fruit clusters are born being killed to the last year's wood, foliage and all being dead. It is a question whether the seriously injured buds will again send out shoots, many holding the vine are killed to the ground. Tender foliage every where was damaged and it is probable that many trees will be partly defoliated during the summer. Corn in the ground is probably dead and corn above the ground was killed. The situation is one of the most serious that has resulted from a spring freeze in many years in Putnam County.

Cold weather still remains and it is feared that the worst is not yet. S. A. Hazelett, who owns extensive orchards in the county, stated Monday that he had given up the apple crop. He had made exhaustive examinations that morning and found the heart of each apple to be black from the frost. It was his opinion that a few late apples upon which the bloom still hung might escape, but the rest of the crop was beyond help.

THREE KILLED IN BIG FOUR WRECK

HORRIBLE PILE UP OF CARS AT SANFORD CAUSED BY AN OPEN SWITCH.

EIGHT MEN ARE INJURED

Responsibility Said to Be Placed on Telegraph Operator Who Formerly Worked in Greencastle—Train Going at Full Speed When Catastrophe Occurred—Relief Train Sent From Terre Haute.

THE DEAD

Robert Ely, Mattoon, Ill., engineer on the wrecked train.
Hiram Driscoll, Mattoon, Ill., interlocking repair man.
Unknown, Mattoon, interlocking repairman.

THE INJURED.

H. L. Shipman, Indianapolis, conductor.
F. D. Griffin, Brightwood, brakeman.
Sam Moffitt, Dallas Springer, Chas. Gullet, L. B. Donnelly, all interlock repairmen and all living at Mattoon.

Second division of equipment train No. 46, was wrecked at Sanford, Ind., early Friday morning and three men were killed and eight seriously injured. The cause of the wreck was an open switch into which the train ran at full speed, derailing the cars and causing them to pile up in the track.

The train, composed of five empty baggage and express cars was running as the second section of No. 46 the early morning passenger train due here about five a. m. The train is run east bound simply to get the empty equipment back to Indianapolis as it is used every evening to make up a train at Indianapolis to take care of the heavy express business of the American Express Company on the Big Four.

This accounts for the fact that the cars were all express or baggage cars and were uncoupled by any one except the train crew consisting of Conductor Harry L. Shipman, Brakeman, C. C. Clark and F. D. Griffin, all of Indianapolis and Brightwood.

Switch was Left Open.

The cause of the wreck was the open switch at Sanford which had been left open by the train crew of a west bound freight train No. 93 which left Brightwood as an extra about nine o'clock last evening. No. 93 was in charge of Conductor Jas. Taylor of Brightwood and was given orders to meet the first section of No. 46 at Sanford and the second section at Vermillion the next station west of there.

After first No. 46 passed Sanford No. 93 left the siding and went to Vermillion where they took siding for second No. 46. Conductor Taylor of No. 93 states that as they left Sanford the operator came out of the office and told him he would close the switch.

After 93 arrived at Vermillion Taylor said he had the operator there call the operator at Sanford and inquire if he had closed the switch and he said he had. No reason is known for the failure of Engineer Robert Ely of Mattoon, Ill., not seeing the open switch and as he lost his life under his engine it will never be known.

Struck Car Full of Men

The train struck the open switch points at a rate of sixty miles per hour. Engine 6909 was hurled on her side and the next two cars following likewise. The rest of the train was derailed but remained upright. As the huge engine turned over it struck and completely demolished a bunk or boarding car used by a gang of interlock men who are at work at Sanford. The men, eight in number, were eating their breakfast in the car and had no chance to escape.

The injured were taken to the St. Vincents' Hospital at Terre Haute by a relief train that arrived at the scene of the wreck from Terre Haute at 6:42 a. m. with doctors from that city. The dead were turned over to the undertakers of Terre Haute. The accident occurred at 5:32 a. m. and train master W. L. Lamport of Terre Haute expected to have the main track clear about 7:45 a. m. as only one car blocked it. B. Hunt was the operator at Sanford.

Worked in Greencastle.

I. B. Hunt, the operator, who is charged by some of the trainmen with being responsible for the wreck is well known in Greencastle having spent several months at work here last year. While he is said to have promised to close the switch, it was not his duty to do so, and there is some question as to responsibility for the horrible affair.

ALL EYES ARE ON STATE CONVENTION

HUNDREDS OF PUTNAM COUNTY DEMOCRATS FLOCK TO THE CAPITAL CITY.

MANY GO ON LAMB SPECIAL

Three special cars on the Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Eastern Traction lines were scheduled to pass through Greencastle during the day today, carrying the supporters of John E. Lamb to the state convention. One of these, bearing the label "Lamb Special" passed through a little afternoon and a number of Greencastle men boarded it for the capital city.

All the delegates between Terre Haute and Indianapolis, with the possible exception of those in Marion County, are supposed to be Lamb "boosters" and as the Lamb management desired to have all of the Terre Haute statesman's supporters on hand early, the special cars were run to accommodate them.

A couple of hundred Democrats from Putnam County will probably attend the convention Wednesday and Thursday, a great many suspending business for three days and going Tuesday evening to stay until it is all over. This is expected to be the most interesting convention the Democrats of Indiana have had since 1892, and as a result, tickets are greatly in demand in all parts of Indiana.

Heretofore Democratic conventions have been a place where candidates were drafted to run on the state ticket, and the fact that there are from twelve to fourteen men struggling for the senatorship this year is taken as a good sign of the drift of sentiment. Two years ago there was a considerable of a contest for the nomination for governor and the result was that the Democrats swept the state. This year the outlook is for a tremendous victory. Hence the rush for places on the state ticket and for preferment for United States Senator.

The Putnam County delegation will probably support the Marshall plan of nominating a senatorial candidate at this convention and the delegates from here will probably be solid for Lamb for the place. While there are contests for nearly all the places on the state ticket, the senatorial fight overshadows all. However there is a great deal of interest taken in the outcome of the fights for state treasurer, for attorney general and for judges of the Appellate Court. In fact about the only sure thing in the way of a nomination is that of Superintendent Robert J. Ale, whose candidacy is endorsed by all factions of the party, and whose administration of the past two years has been so satisfactory that all hands can agree upon him.

Crawfordsville Review: Miss Grace Wilson of Odell and Miss Helen Dunnington of Indianapolis, students in DePauw University, returned home Monday morning after having been the guest over Saturday and Sunday of Miss Elsie Osborne.

SIR KNIGHTS HAD INTERESTING TIME

BRAZIL WELL PLEASED WITH TURNOUT OF NEIGHBORING COMMANDERIES.

MALTA IS A HIGH DEGREE

Other interesting facts in regard to the event of the Knights Templar at Brazil Wednesday night are given by the Brazil News as follows:

The greatest event that has been in Brazil for a long time occurred Wednesday night when the Brazil Commandery Knights Templar entertained visiting Sir Knights from Terre Haute, Greencastle and other cities on the occasion of the conferring of the degree of Knights of Malta on a class of five candidates by the Sir Knights of Terre Haute Commandery. After the impressive work about a hundred and twenty-five Sir Knights sat down to a very sumptuous banquet served by the Brazil Commandery in the banquet hall at the Masonic Temple on north Walnut street.

The degree of Knight of Malta is one of the highest rank in the Masonry orders equipped to exemplify this beautiful degree. In Indiana only Indianapolis, Ft. Wayne, and Terre Haute are equipped for this work. Usually the degree is communicated but the Brazil Knights Templar arranged with the Terre Haute Commandery to bring its elaborate paraphernalia to this city and exemplify the work in full form. Fifty-two Sir Knights of Terre Haute including the members of the degree staff came to this city Wednesday night in a special car while Greencastle sent twenty-three of their Knights. The degree was exemplified in the hall on the second floor of the Masonic Temple to a class of five who were Harry Vickers and Jerry Mishler, of this city, and Merit L. Lauback, Hiram R. Radley and Bert J. Prater of Terre Haute. The hall was splendidly decorated in the flags and emblems of the order. The work of the Terre Haute Sir Knights was of high order and the full ceremonial was exemplified in a very impressive manner. One of the pleasing features of the work was the singing of the Schubert quartette of Terre Haute composed of Richard L. Alder, John C. Vaughn, Edward Hazeldine and Chester L. Eldlar and E. Y. Hooper, of this city, as organist.

After work the Sir Knights marched to the banquet hall on the lower floor where they were served with an elaborate and sumptuous banquet. During the progress of the banquet several selections were rendered by the quartette and short talks were made by various Sir Knights. O. E. Adams was toastmaster and addresses were made by R. L. Kennedy of Center Point; George W. Hanna, S. R. Williamson and J. B. Wyatt of Greencastle; E. C. Everett of Terre Haute, and Albert Payne of this city.

The Terre Haute team which did the work was headed by Sir Knight Charles Balch, Eminent Prior. The following Greencastle Sir Knights were present: E. E. Williamson, J. B. Wyatt, R. S. Cowgill, A. E. Ayler, F. D. Randolph, G. W. Crawley, E. E. Black, Conrad C. Gaudier, W. M. Huock, J. L. Randal, C. W. Huffman, Joe M. Allen, E. B. Lynch, D. W. Campbell, A. A. Lane, Benton Curtis, Wm H. Cullen, G. W. Hanna, L. A. Zarin, C. E. Crawley, Charles Zeis.

IT IS FUNGUS

Felix T. McWhirter, the leader of the Prohibition party in Indiana, has this to say about the Anti-Saloon League:

"The Anti-Saloon League is a fungus growth, a growth that will take hold of anything diseased. Now the Republican party is diseased and when the temperance question broke out two years ago the Anti-Saloon League applied a plaster and stuck to the Republican party."

Perhaps it is because the Democratic party is so everlastingly sound that the esteemed league has fought it so fiercely.—Spencer Democrat.

CHARGE AGAINST FROST

Harmony Lodge of Odd Fellows Has Judge Rawley to Issue Bench Warrant.

Trustees of Clay Encampment, I. O. O. F., of Harmony, appeared before Deputy Prosecutor S. W. Leo and made affidavit against Merle Frost, formerly of Reelsville, until recently treasurer of the lodge, on the charge of having embezzled $1,300 of the lodge's money.

The affidavit will be filed direct in the Clay Circuit Court and Judge Rawley will issue a bench warrant for the arrest of Frost. Nothing has been heard of the whereabouts of the defaulting lodge treasurer and it is not known in what direction he went.

It is probable that the lodge will send out circulars to Odd Fellows lodges all over the country giving a description of Frost and offering a reward for his arrest and hope to locate him in this manner. The officers will not make a search for Frost at this time as there is no clue to his whereabouts to work on.

TWO WOMEN ARE CLAIMING B. ELLIS

GREENCASTLE MAN HAS MORE WIVES THAN PEACE AND COMFORT REQUIRE.

THE REAL WIFE IS HERE

An associated press dispatch from Winchester, Ky., states that two women are claiming Bayne Ellis as their lawful husband and the officers of that place are at a loss to account for the claims as to which is the real wife of the former Greencastle man.

Ellis left Greencastle some time ago in company with Mrs. Ida Curry, and he was heavily in debt to numerous Greencastle people, some of his deals in the way of selling mortgaged property being rather questionable. From there he went to Terre Haute and from Terre Haute, after the thrilling experience of escaping from a boarding house by means of a second story window, he went to Winchester, Ky. W. P. Ledbetter to whom Ellis was indebted and to whom he had mortgaged the property that was sold, located him at Winchester and caused his arrest at that place. The officers there on failure of further action here, released Ellis, but not before some interesting statements were made.

According to the dispatch from Winchester, Ellis went to that town with a woman who claimed to be his wife and who said her name was Ida Curry Ellis. Their ostensible object was to visit the parents of "Ida Curry Ellis." So far as the officers at Winchester knew she was his lawful wife.

Letter From Real Mrs. Ellis.

The police at Winchester believed the assertion that Mrs. Curry was the wife of Ellis until last Saturday when they received a letter from the real Mrs. Ellis in Greencastle, who said that she was the first and only wife of Bayne Ellis. She also stated that Ellis deserted her, taking all the money that he had and leaving her without means of support, going with a woman whom he did not know and whom he only met three months ago before the elopement. She signed herself as Clara Ellis.

This letter was received after Ellis had been released by the Winchester police. The latter believe that Ellis is still in Clark County, Ky., despite the assertions of Mrs. Ellis No. 2 that he has gone back to Indiana to straighten out his difficulties. However, the police of Winchester are still trying to figure out which is the legal wife of Ellis.

The records in the office of the clerk of the Putnam County Circuit Court show that a marriage license was issued to Bain Ellis and Clara Ader on January 3, 1910, and the wedding ceremonies were performed on that date by Elder J. N. Dalby. No divorce records in regard to these parties are to be found.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Further facts in regard to the death of Elmer Shinn at Hutchinson Stop Thursday are given by the Brazil Times as follows: A suicide theory is discredited. Mr. Galloway said that when he left Shinn at Stop 36 he was in the best of spirits. He had just finished telling a funny story about the experience of his friend, Jack Risher in camp, near that point, during a previous summer. He said that Shinn was apparently happy, and he left him talking to the three men as mentioned yesterday. The Greencastle papers advanced the theory that he had committed suicide being a consumptive. He was not known to be afflicted with this disease, however, he carried in his note book a clipping telling of the fresh air treatment for consumption.

The business men of Cloverdale have received a shipment of forty barrels of oil which will be used on the streets of that town this summer. Some weeks ago the business men of that town decided to go into the oiling of the streets on a greater scale than ever before, having tried it heretofore. This first shipment will be used at once and there will be more placed on the streets later. The merchants there have found much comfort and economy in the use of the fluid and have demonstrated to their own satisfaction that it pays.

Chief of Police Brown of Brazil was in the city Thursday to take the remains of Elmer Shinn to Brazil and while there he called at the sheriff's office and he and Deputy Kelley talked over old war times (with Poland.) In the division of spoils, Chief Brown gets a fine shepherd dog which Poland left. The dog is about the most valuable piece of property left in the hands of the police and Chief Brown thinks that it is worth more than the mule and wagon together.

At the earnest solicitation of Republican leaders over the district, Hendricks County Republicans are about ready to present the name of Prosecutor Edgar M. Blessing as a candidate for Congress in the Fifth District. Unless the Republicans of Vigo County stand solidly behind Frank Tilley, and it is shown that he has the united support of the western half of the district, Mr. Blessing's name will go before the convention, because it is known that he can have the votes of the eastern half for the asking.

Mrs. Eliza Simms of Liberty and Mrs. Hemenway of Zionsville are guests of Mrs. A. D. Mills.

W. P. Ledbetter on Friday received a check for $39 from Mrs. Ida Curry at Winchester, Ky., covering the amount due him from Bayne Ellis. The latter has been released from the Winchester jail. Mr. Ledbetter says that an article published in a local paper did him an injustice. He, however, denies the implied allegation that he wrote the marshal at Winchester, Ky., asking him to collect the amount due him, and he is willing to offer one thousand dollars if any communication between him and the authorities there in which he asked them to collect the money, can be produced. He admits writing to the woman, however, and the receipts of his money, shows that he was justified in doing this despite the statement by the paper that she refused to "dig up".

The case of Florence E. Austin, administrator of the estate of Lawrence Austin, vs. the Monon, in which the plaintiff asked for $10,000 damages on account of the death of her husband, has been compromised. Mrs. Austin is to receive $4,400 and sign a receipt for settlement in full. Her husband was the fireman who was killed in the wreck near Manchester a year ago in July. It is understood that the Monon will settle with the administrator of the estate of Norman Bryne, the engineer who was killed in the same wreck.

Eddie Coffman was very pleasantly surprised Thursday evening by the clerks of the Model Stores on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of his birth. The event was in the shape of an elaborate supper on the second floors of the Model establishment and Eddie knew nothing of what was going on during the afternoon when the table was being arranged and the affair plotted. At the time of closing the store, the clerks suddenly seized Eddie by the arms and legs and carried him upstairs and it is said that he thought his last day had come as it looked as though they intended to throw him out of an upstairs window. This however was not the case, and he was joyfully surprised to find the supper all spread and ready for him. The event was a most enjoyable one to all present and at the conclusion Mr. Coffman was presented with a fine Elks pin. Besides those connected with the stores, Miss Gladys Roger and Edgar Williamson were present.

When he reached the Big Four concrete arch just north of town, the mare began to kick. The single tree was broken and Mr. Tustison was thrown from the buggy. He struck on his shoulder and face and the side of his face was badly bruised and cut. The horse ran only a short distance and stopped. Little damage was done to the buggy.

T. Zaring set the broken bone and while the patient suffered a great deal of pain at first, he is now getting along as well as could be expected.

The Brazil Times is fearful that Mrs. Delia Poland will be returned to that city. The times says: "Heavens. Is it possible that Clay county is going to get another dose of the Poland case. Mrs. Poland was arrested here and returned to Hendricks county but Hendricks county officers do not want her as they do not think she can be convicted and has offered the woman to Putnam county officials, who have also signified that they are glad that Delia is off their hands. Clay county officials evidently were lucky in getting the woman off their hands."

Indianapolis Sun. Charging that the train that struck him at Michigan street and the Big Four railroad tracks in June, 1907, was exceeding the speed limit of four miles an hour, Emanuel Marquis, brought suit in superior court this morning for $5,000 damages against the railroad. He charges he was seriously injured.

L. T. Welch, who has been confined to his home all winter by a stroke of paralysis, told the Herald Saturday that just sixty-four years ago, April 23, 1846, which was Easter Sunday, it snowed all day long. The snow flurries reminded Mr. Welch of the day sixty-four years ago and he says that the two days were a great deal alike except that the 1846 day saw a much heavier snow fall. He was thirteen years old at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Jones received Wednesday evening at their home north of the city, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jones. The affidavit is the result of trouble that occurred at Bainbridge Saturday night. Allee claims that the two men were drinking and that they came to his dance hall and started trouble. When he attempted to put them out, they both landed on him with the result that he carries two discolored eyes and a bruised face.

WOMAN'S WOES.

Greencastle Women are Finding Relief at Last

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Howard King, 704 Illinois Street, Greencastle, Ind. says: "Several years ago I was in poor health as the result of disordered kidneys. My back pained me intensely at times. As I had often heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I finally procured a supply at the Jones, Stevens Co's Drug Store, and after I had used three or four boxes, I was entirely relieved. I have no hesitation in recommending this excellent remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Terrible Croup

One Who Knows Recommends Remedy to Anxious Mothers.

My little boy, who is four years old, has suffered a lot with croup. On several occasions we thought he was gone.

After trying all the old remedies and most of the new, I came home one night at midnight and my wife said "The boy has croup again—suppose you get a box of Hyomei." "More junk," I said, "but we will circulate our money; they all will get some."

I hastened to an all night drug store, brought it home. In fifteen minutes he was breathing easier. It broke the croup and quickly it scared me.

Anyone wishing to cure the croup of a child I hope you will give Hyomei a trial.

Wishing you the best of success which you surely deserve, I remain, Jos. E. Clark, 204 6th Street, S. E., Washington, D. C. Oct 7, 1909.

STRADDLING FOR HARMONY.

The inconsistency and lack of sincerity of the leaders of the Republican party is manifest in the attempts being made in certain sections of the state to straddle all questions for the sake of harmony. The motto of the various district conventions, as phrased in their platforms is, evidently, "we will believe anything is good if we can win." In the Eleventh District recently, because there were both standpat politicians and also some insurgent strength a compromise platform was adopted endorsing Taft and thereby giving sanction to Taft's defense of the Payne-Aldrich Bill, and also endorsing Beveridge and his attacks upon the Payne-Aldrich Bill. It is evident that the party has no policy, and that the leaders are only after some compromise that will prevent the two factions from coming to blows. If the people are deceived by such bare-faced hypocrisy they are more dense than usual. The time has come for the Republican party to make a declaration of principles. In Chicago, at the last national convention, they gave the country a hodge podge platform meaning everything and nothing. As a result we have the Payne-Aldrich Bill, the high cost of living and a president under the thumb of Aldrich and the interests. Now in the districts where the fight for congressmen is expected to be hard, we have the same ambiguity of resolution and platform. The people do not know where the party stands. It may be with Beveridge, it may be with Taft and Aldrich. It asks the people to wait till after the election to see where the party stands, but having once done this the people refuse again to be deceived. Straddling to save the feelings of a few near-leaders will not save the votes of the people for a rotten platform.

CLEARING THE SENATE.

Seeing the hand writing on the wall Senators Hale and Aldrich, two of the worst reactionaries and stand-pat members of the upper house of the government at Washington, have declared their intention of quitting public life. They will leave ostensibly because they are old, but in reality because they feel that their election for another term is more than doubtful. These men have been for years at the head of affairs in the Senate. Having spent more years in that body than most other men they were at the head of the most important committees, were closest in touch with the great interests to be represented there, understood very fully the method of coercing other senators, and were, in fact, the most powerful foes of the government of the people ever holding place in Washington. We have seen, within the last two months a president of the United States on his knees before these men, and this kneeling position upheld by a considerable portion of the Republican press as necessary under the circumstances. The retirement to private life of these entrenched representatives of the interests and the stand-pat policy is indication that the housecleaning is likely to be far reaching and effective. An awakened voting public, awakened we hope for all time, will tolerate no more bossism in congress, and possibly not much more in the states themselves. The time will come when it will be enough to defeat a party to prove that that party is under the control of a boss, no matter what his intentions are. The political world, even in America, is moving.

REPUBLICANS TO DEFEND TARIFF

NO DOUBT AS TO THE COURSE TO BE PURSUED BY THAT PARTY'S LEADERS.

MOVEMENT NOW ON FOOT

BY TAVENNER.
 (SPECIAL TO THE HERALD)
 WASHINGTON, April 27, 1910.—Senator Wm. J. Stone of Missouri believes that the inquiry now being made by the Senate committee into the cost of living is a "mock investigation organized for the sole purpose of acquitting the Payne-Aldrich tariff of responsibility for higher prices."

Senator Stone is not the only one member of the House who entertains such a belief, because as a matter of fact no one any other thought than that the "investigating committee" will whitewash the new tariff law. The Missouri senator, however, went further than anyone else in exposing the scheme on the floor of the senate. Senator Stone was opposing the resolution of Senator Lodge providing for an appropriation of $65,400 to broaden the scope of the "inquiry."

The personnel of the "investigating" committee, together with the circumstances attending the creating of the body, indicate what the verdict will be.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, high priest of protection, made a speech in the Senate completely vindicating the tariff of all blame for increased prices.

It was then decided a committee should be appointed to investigate the subject, Senator Lodge, one of chief framers of the new tariff law and admittedly prejudiced on the subject, was selected to occupy the role of chairman of the committee, or, in other words, to be the chief judge.

"To an ordinary man like me," declared Senator Stone, "that looks like stacking the cards."

Senator Stone then referred to a statement by Senator Hale, made on the floor of the Senate recently while the work of the investigating committee was under consideration.

"I think," Senator Hale had said, "we may count on the committee furnishing us with valuable material which we will, all of us, use in the days between now and November."

What Senator Hale meant was that the Lodge price investigating committee would no doubt find the tariff law blameless, and that this verdict could be used by the stand-patters in the approaching congressional elections to stave off defeat.

When the present investigation began it was generally understood that Senator Lodge was placed in charge of it to prevent the discovery of anything that might reflect upon the tariff law. Lodge has worked diligently to carry out this purpose. Some of the witnesses, however, have been so unfeeling as to declare that the tariff law has increased the cost of necessities, and have been so stubborn as to prove the truthfulness of their assertions, notwithstanding the remonstrances of Lodge and his positive refusal to believe them.

This has been embarrassing to the bosses, and particularly irritating to Lodge, who has declared the ultimate consumer to be a myth. So Lodge conceived the idea of employing experts to ascertain prices and their causes. Experts can be so carefully selected and so well instructed that when they go in the search of information they find exactly what they are expected to find and nothing more.

The Lodge resolution provides for expended in the employment of such experts who would proceed over the country gathering the information Lodge wants them to gather.

The danger of summoning witnesses indiscriminately and getting a whole lot of information which does not agree with the general defense of the tariff law, made by the President and the organization men of both houses, would be overcome through the adoption of the Lodge resolution.

The Democrats and progressive republicans have hammered the the appropriation of $65,000 to be proposition so hard, however, that the standpatters have for the time being apparently abandoned their scheme.

This does not mean, however, that the committee will not vindicate the Payne-Aldrich tariff law when it comes time to make public the "findings" of the committee.

Neither the progressive republicans nor the Democrats take the "investigation" seriously. They regard it as a political move by the standpatters to fool the people.

Miss Elizabeth Grogan of Anderson is visiting W. R. Grogan.

Philip Frank complained Tuesday afternoon of having had a hat stolen and the police were called in to investigate. Mr. Frank had left his hat hanging on the peg kept for the purpose and sent a pair of colored boys to his room for the purpose of cleaning the house. When he went in later the hat was gone and when the police investigated they found the hat perched jauntily on the head of one of the boys. He asked for an explanation, the boy said that he understood that he could have anything that he wanted and the hat struck his fancy as it caught his attention. No arrest.

ACT ON NOTICE OF E. B. LYNCH

THE SEWAGE QUESTION IS STILL
WORRYING GREENCASTLE
CITY OFFICIALS.

MEN WERE OUT EARLY

Mayor John R. Miller, Street Commissioner Dexter Culter and E. B. Lynch were out early Friday morning to look at the waterway running down Walnut Street, in order to ascertain the true condition. The condition has been known to Mr. Lynch for some time, but it is understood that some of the councilmen and city officials fail to recognize Mr. Lynch's grounds for complaint.

The gentlemen were brought out by a notice filed with Mayor Miller on Thursday in which Mr. Lynch stated that unless the city took some steps toward obeying the injunction issued by the Putnam Circuit court against the city running filthy waters and slops down the waterway on Walnut Street, proceedings would be instituted in court at once.

There seems to be a difference of opinion in regard to the water running down this street being filthy and investigation by different parties have different results. When officials of the city investigate, there is no sloppy water in the drains, and when Mr. Lynch investigates there is filth in abundance. This is not a coincidence that is attributed to the standpoint of the parties, as Mr. Lynch was sustained recently by a report of Councilman Bittles, who agreed with him that the filth was there.

Other Waterway Dirty.

The Walnut street waterway is not the only one that is discharging dirty filthy water upon the lands of Mr. Lynch as the one just south of Walnut, which runs through the pastures in that section, is also in bad condition and at times a great deal of dirty overflow finds its way into the spring on the Lynch place. While the injunction applies to the water that overflows into this spring it can hardly be construed to apply to this last named waterway.

At the time of the filing of the suit by Mr. Lynch against the city, this waterway had dried up and was not discharging any filthy drainage upon the complainant's land. Hence Mr. Lynch failed to mention it in his complaint against the city. During the trial of the case representatives of the city tried to show that the filthy water was going down the other way, thus, it is claimed, trying to avoid judgment by the technicality of failure of the complaint to specify the drain in question. In this connection Mr. Lynch tells of an amusing incident.

During the trial Judge Rawley and the parties to the suit visited the Lynch place, and Mr. Lynch was showing the officials a great deal of filthy water that was going down the Walnut street drain. As it was a dry season, Mr. Lynch started to show the court that the other waterway had dried up, and made a remark to this effect, pointing to the ditch. While the ditch was perfectly dry at the point where the gentlemen were standing, they looked up the valley a short distance and found water beginning to flow down that way.

Mr. Lynch accounts for this by the assertion that while the gentlemen were on their way to the scene of the trouble, he was told, a trick had been performed by someone turning on the hydrants that flooded this southward ditch in an effort to show that the water was going down that way, but fortunately the gentlemen beat the water down. Mr. Lynch now talks of filing another suit for an injunction as to this waterway.

It is understood that the street department will take steps at once in an effort to stop the nuisance.

Mayor Miller stated Friday afternoon that he had examined the water that was flowing out of the drain at the foot of Walnut Street and found the water perfectly clear. However an effort will be made to locate any sewage drains that empty into the Walnut street drain, if any exist, and these will be discontinued. Mr. Miller said that he thought the matter would be amicably settled with Mr. Lynch.

PEOPLE EXPECT HIS VISIT

James McD. Hays, who is one of the census enumerators in Greencastle said Thursday morning that the newspapers had proven a great help in the work, as most of the people had become posted and were expecting the visit of the enumerator and had stored away all the necessary information. Only those who do not take the papers are giving the enumerators trouble.

"Oh yes, I'm expecting you; I saw in the Herald, where you would be around and I've prepared myself for your visit."

These and similar expressions greet the enumerators at most of the homes, and the result is that the work will be speedily completed in Greencastle. Mr. Hays has encountered no vicious dogs up to the present.

One of the enumerators in the out townships reports the following conversation:

"How many children have you?"

"Bout seventy-five," says the man who looks as though he knows all about subsoils and soils of crops.

"W-h-a-t!"

"Sur; there 're some of 'em," and the farmer's finger is pointed to a fine flock of chickens running about his barnyard.

"I said how many children have you?" come from the recovered questioner.

"Gosh! Thought you said chickens! I've got five young ones, besides my daughter, who's married and lives over in the next township."

Dialogues similar to the one explained are reported above—perhaps not exactly similar—are taking place all over the nation these fine April days. It is the enumerator's business to ask questions of you and of me to tell him what he wants to know, for the law says that refusing to answer a census taker or giving him misleading or incorrect information is a misdemeanor, punishable by fine.

CABINET WORKS KEEPS PROMISE

LAST FOUR YEARS HAVE SEEN
THEM AT CONTINUOUS OP-ERATIONS.

TO GET BONUS OF $3,000

The Greencastle Commercial club met Friday evening and took up what little business there was to wind up. Messrs. Day and Coss, proprietors of the Greencastle Cabinet Works were present and notified the club that the time as agreed upon by them and the Commercial Club in regard to the bonus to be received by them would soon expire and they had faithfully kept the contract.

When The Greencastle Cabinet Works started to operate its plant in this city, the Commercial Club agreed to donate the sum of $3,000 to them, providing they operated their plant continuously for four years, during which time they gave employment to twenty-five or more men. The gentlemen showed to the Commercial Club Friday that they had not only kept their agreement to do this, but during most of the time they have employed a great many more than the required number and were never shut down except for absolutely necessary repairs. The four years designated in the contract will expire in the next ten days.

FALLS IN ELEVATOR SHAFT

CINCINNATI, O., April 20.—Roger H. Burlingame, assistant city editor of the Commercial-Tribune, formerly a newspaper man in Indianapolis, was badly injured on Friday morning when he fell four stories down the elevator shaft of the South Normandy Building at 519 Race Street. He says he mistook the door of the elevator shaft for another and walked into the pit. He grasped the elevator rope and broke his fall, but landed on the floor almost unconscious. He cried out for help and the janitor summoned a physician. The doctor says his left ankle is broken badly and the other so bruised he will be unable to be out for a month or six weeks. Burlingame fell feet foremost and by grasping the rope cut the flesh from the palm of his right hand. His mother and brother have been called and will take him to Louisville.

Roger Burlingame formerly lived in Greencastle and is well known here.

Estes Duncan of Cloverdale has brought suit against James Cline in the Putnam circuit court. He asks judgment on note in the sum of $300 Jesse M. Cline is principal on the note and James Cline is surety. Lyon & Peck represent the plaintiff.

MYSTERY IN THE DEATH OF SHINN

BRAZIL MAN KILLED WEDNES-DAY BY INTERURBAN WAS
MUSHROOM HUNTING
WITH TWO COM-PANIONS.

SUICIDE STORY IS SCOUTED

If Elmer Shinn, the Brazil man killed by an interurban car, just west of Greencastle Thursday morning, did not commit suicide, how is the accident explained? And yet his friends say that there is no reason to believe that the man did commit suicide.

And all those who know Shinn are of the opinion that the man was not careless enough to lay down on the interurban track. Some few are of the opinion that Shinn was the victim of foul play and that his body was laid upon the interurban tracks by someone who had killed him.

Shinn, who was known in Brazil where he had lived for nearly fifteen years, as a gambler. Recently, however, he had been working as a bartender in Terre Haute. It is said that he had just arranged to start a gambling room in that city and that he had a room prepared and was all ready to begin operations. It is known that he even had arranged to borrow money to finance his place. Thursday morning Shinn, Nip Galloway and Jack Resher left Brazil on an early morning car to go on a mushroom hunt; they got off the car near Big Walnut Creek and went into the woods. The men were together until about ten o'clock, when they went out of the woods and onto the car tracks. This was near a station, called Fox, west of the creek. Here Galloway and Resher left Shinn, who, being a cripple, was tired out. He told them he would catch a car there and they decided to go back and hunt for more mushrooms. When they left him they told him that they would go west and catch the car he would be on at the next station west.

His companions went west to the next station and caught the car. They asked the conductor about Mr. Shinn, and the conductor said that he had seen a man fitting his description, talking to two other men by the side of the tracks some distance back. Galloway and Resher got back to Brazil before noon, they say.

Although they say they left Shinn at Fox, which is west of the creek, Shinn evidently walked east a couple of miles as he was east of the creek when he was killed.

The many friends of Shinn are at a loss to account for his death. They scout the suicide theory, declare that the man was not of the careless nature to lay down on the car tracks and some hint that the foul play theory is the only one which they take much stock in.

The victim leaves a widow, and aged parents. He also has three brothers.

FUNERAL HELD ON FRIDAY

The funeral of the Rev. D. R. Landis, for a number of years prominently connected with the work of the Baptist Church in Indiana as a state evangelist, who died in an Indianapolis hospital Monday night of pneumonia, will be held in Greencastle at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. The Rev. Landis came to Indiana about thirty-five years ago from Pennsylvania, where he was born in 1846. He had accepted the pastorate of the church in Greencastle when he became ill seven weeks ago. He was a member of the G. A. R. The Rev. W. B. Pope, superintendent of the State Missions of the Baptist church, will conduct the funeral services.

Be it resolved, that in the death of our pastor this church has sustained a severe loss, and the trustees of this church and the members of the congregation deeply regret the loss the church has sustained; but with resignation submit to the will of a Divine Providence.

Be it further resolved that the members of this Board of Trustees extend to the family of our deceased pastor their sincerest sympathy.

Be it further resolved that this resolution be spread upon the record book of the church and a copy hereof be forwarded by the church clerk to the wife of our deceased pastor, and a copy be furnished the press.

CONTROVERSY MAY END PEACEFULLY

CITY OFFICIALS WILLING TO TAKE STEPS TO ABATE THE SEWAGE NUISANCE.

CITY DOES NOT STAND PAT

Despite the assertion of the administration's organ that "the city stands pat" in the controversy with E. B. Lynch, Mayor Miller and the councilmen are making every effort in their power to put a stop to the running of filthy water down the Walnut Street drain. Mr. Lynch thinks that the Republican organ has not only done him an injustice, but has done the city administration an injustice, as the assertion that the "city stands pat" puts the officials in the serious position of being guilty of contempt of court.

As a matter of fact, the city does not "stand pat". Mr. Miller is sincere in his expressed desire to have the controversy amicably settled. Councilman Bittles, to whom was left the matter of drainage reported that the Walnut Street drain was discharging sewage upon the land of Mr. Lynch. Recently at a meeting of the council some of the members tried to make light of the assertion that Mr. Lynch had grounds for complaint, when Mr. Bittles said: "Boys, it's there, (meaning filthy overflow), and the best thing we can do is to put a stop to it."

Mr. Lynch stated Saturday morning that the organ tried to excuse the city on the ground that Mr. Lynch kept a cess pool on his own ground. Evidently this organ believes that the water from Lynch's cess pool flows up the hill and then spreads over the city's ground, which belief is in keeping with other statements of the paper.

Mr. Lynch does not believe that it will be necessary for him to again appeal to the courts to have the matter adjusted as the officials with whom he talked showed a strong willingness to do what was right in the matter. All that he asks is to have the injunction of the court obeyed. When asked how the city could do this he stated that that was a question for them to settle. Judge Rawley's decree does not undertake to prescribe how the city shall stop discharging sewage upon the land, but it orders that it be stopped.

Had no Authority. In regard to the Republican organ's statement to the effect that the city would "stand pat" Mr. Lynch called on the Mayor Saturday and consulted with him. Mr. Lynch reports that he and the mayor are getting on fine in the controversy and are having no disagreement whatever. It is understood that the statement that the "city stands pat" was made without the authority of city officials. Mr. Lynch told the mayor that inasmuch as certain city officials claimed that the filth was going down by way of the Seminary street drain, he intended to file suit for injunction as to this drain, and was told that the matter would be looked into by the officials. As to the organ's beloved term, "stand pat" there were no indications whatever that the administration purposed any such policy.

Mr. Lynch does not deny that he has a cess pool, but he says that when it annoys his neighbors he will be willing to discontinue it without a law suit, which he says, is contrary to the policy of some who are trying to get the administration to "stand pat."

MAY GET ANOTHER CARRIER

Examination Held Saturday for Clerk and Carrier at the Greencastle Postoffice.

Assistant Deputy Postmaster Ernest Stoner held examination of applicants for eligibility to clerkship and carriership at the Greencastle postoffice Saturday forenoon. There are no vacancies to be filled but the department rules that an eligibility list be kept at all times and the examination was held to fill this list. Three persons took the examination. Ralph Hill was the only one to take the examination for carrier and Miss Clara Hodshire and Roxy Miles took the examination for clerk.

The officials of the local postoffice will soon ask for another carrier for deliveries in Greencastle. There are three carriers at present but the business is heavy enough to maintain another and then keep them all busy. However there is no immediate need for an increase in the office force.

R. W. Stuart of New Maysville, formerly superintendent of the county poor asylum was in the city Friday on business.

Stop Women And Consider

This Fact—that in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers twenty-five years.

The present Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, was for years under her direction, and has ever since her decease continued to advise women.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty causes them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. Such questioning and examination is unnecessary. Without cost you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

MRS. PINKHAM'S STANDING INVITATION:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

CHAMP CLARK'S AMBITION

(By Tavenner.)

WASHINGTON, April 26:— Mr. Champ Clark's ambition to become a member of congress was born when he was a ragged, barefooted youngster in Kentucky.

The minority leader told about that ambition in the House the other day, and it made a pretty good story. At the time he was opposing an appropriation for the maintenance of the Speaker's automobile.

"I am as proud of my seat," he said, "as any man here. I will stay here if I can get $7,500 a year and I would stay here if you cut the salary down tomorrow to $5,000 a year. I would stay if you cut it down to $3,000—I would stay here if you took the salary away, as long as I had bank account enough to stay. That is because I like the service here. It is the thing that I looked forward to from a time that I can scarcely remember, when I was a poor, barefoot ragged boy hoeing corn on a rock hill in Kentucky."

"I had never seen a lawyer, I had never seen a Congressman, I had never seen a courthouse, but I made up my mind then that I was going to be a lawyer, and that I was going to be a member of the House of Representatives, and I made good on both propositions. The picture of that little ambitious boy, working as a hired hand, dreaming of the day when he was to be here, abides with me to this day, and will abide with me for ever."

OBITUARY.

Isaac Newton Dicks, son of John and Mary Dicks, was born near German Town, Ky., May 7, 1828, and died at his home near Coatesville Ind. April 9th 1910. When but a boy his parents moved to Putnam County near Greencastle, Ind., where he lived up to the time of his marriage to Miss Vesta Paire, of Bainbridge in the year of 1862.

April 1st. To this union were born seven children, two boys and five girls of which two of the girls have preceded him to the other land one dying at the age of seven, the other at nine. Brother Dicks lived on a farm all his life. He knew what it was to sow the seed by the wayside and wait patiently for the fruitage of the harvest, which proved to him a great blessing in the last few weeks of his life. Nearly forty years ago he joined the Methodist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Stevens at Mount Pleasant, Ind., where he continued a member until about ten years ago when he transferred his membership from the M. E. Church to the Christian Church of Fillmore, Ind., being the pastorate of Rev. Brown. He then moved his membership to the Christian Church at Coatesville Ind., where he has strengthened the church with his financial support and presence in the church service. Speaking of the acquaintance this writer has had with him we cannot say that he was a loud praying type but of the samartain type, he believed in doing unto others as he would have them do unto him. He was of the optimistic spirit always wearing a smile and had a good word for all. He was noted for his honesty which was the ruling spirit of his life and that he taught to his children both by his precept and example, and if their was one word above another that he laid strict emphasis upon it was honesty. Near four weeks previous to his death he was stricken down with what is called lagrippe, which continued gnawing away on his vital life until it eventually caused general disability, and complication of diseases. His four weeks of sickness were borne patiently being at all times conscious recognizing his friends. He made all arrangements for his funeral, selecting his text and song and also the ministers to officiate. During his illness he manifested the spirit of our Christ and it was the privilege of his friends and children in the morning prior to his death in the evening to hear him say that he was trusting God and praying for his divine guidance. After all that kind hands could do for him he was taken from us. His dear wife and children did all within their power to elevate his suffering. He has gone from us, we can only feel that our loss is his gain. He leaves to mourn his departure a wife, two sons, Morton and Harry of Indianapolis; three daughters Mrs. Ruby Swinn of Nevada; Mrs. Carrie McVey of Indianapolis, Mrs. Effie A. Ader of Coatesville, three sons-in-law, two daughter-in-law eight grand children, an invalid sister at Effingham, Ill., and a host of friends.

The funeral services were held at the Christian Church at Coatesville April 11, the sermon being preached by th pastor, Rev. Davidson being assisted by Rev. Shields of the M. E. Church. The remains were laid to rest in the Greencastle cemetery.

MRS. FRANK STROUBE.

Belle Stroube departed this life Thursday, April 14th at 11:30 p. m., aged 43 years and 5 months. She had been in failing health for more than nine years and during that period had been a constant sufferer. She was the seventh child of John and Catherine Roberts, both of whom are deceased—her mother having died while she was quite young and the father passed away eleven years ago. Of her five sisters Clara, Alice and Jennie preceded her to her Father's home. Also two of her brothers, Charlie who died in infancy and Carl having died in— Her other two brothers, John resides in Los Angeles, Cal., and George in Brazil, Ind. Her two sisters, Mrs. David Polom and Mrs. Amest Lewis live at Manhattan.

She was born November 15th, 1867 at Manhattan. At the age of 14 she united with the Christian Church at that place. She obtained her early education in the common school and later at the Danville Schools—she taught for five years in the public schools of Putnam County. September 19, 1889 she was united in marriage to Frank M. Stroube. To them were born three children, Jean Lucile, Ruth Marie and Gail Blackerly.

She was always a devoted Christian, ever expressing an abiding faith in a kind and gracious God. She often expressed a desire to be with her Lord and Master. As a wife she was tender, loving and true. As a mother she ever had the interests of her children at heart, their true friend in joy and sorrow and a counselor whom they ever sought. Her every thought was for the comfort and welfare of her family. She often wished she might live that she might raise her children—but if she must leave them for them not to grieve for her. Her life was an open book, 43 years its pages—known and read in this community.

May we all emulate her virtues and cherish her memory for what she has been to us.

ant, Ind., where he continued a member until about ten years ago when he transferred his membership from the M. E. Church to the Christian Church of Fillmore, Ind., being the pastorate of Rev. Brown. He then moved his membership to the Christian Church at Coatesville Ind., where he has strengthened the church with his financial support and presence in the church service. Speaking of the acquaintance this writer has had with him we cannot say that he was a loud praying type but of the samartain type, he believed in doing unto others as he would have them do unto him. He was of the optimistic spirit always wearing a smile and had a good word for all. He was noted for his honesty which was the ruling spirit of his life and that he taught to his children both by his precept and example, and if their was one word above another that he laid strict emphasis upon it was honesty. ### Impossible to be Well

It is impossible to be well, simply impossible, if the bowels are constipated. You must pay attention to the laws of nature, or suffer the consequences. Undigested material, waste products, poisonous substances, must be removed from the body at least once each day, or there will be trouble. A sluggish liver is responsible for an immense amount of suffering and serious disease. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills. He knows why they act directly on the liver. Trust him. J.C. ## WANTS TO UNLOAD ON US

Hendricks County Sheriff Pays Putnam County Sheriff a Visit and Requests Letter to Take Woman.

Sheriff John Ader of Danville came to Greencastle Tuesday morning and paid a visit to Sheriff Stroube, asking the latter to take Della Poland off his hands. The visit was the result of a correspondence between the two sheriffs on the subject. A few days ago Sheriff Ader wrote Sheriff Stroube and asked him to take the woman off his hands as Putnam County could make the strongest case against her. This the Putnam County officials were at first inclined to do, but after a consultation with Prosecutor Hughes, in which the latter read up a number of supreme court decisions it was found that the women could not be sent to the woman's prison on the evidence in hand, and that her trial here would probably result in a jail sentence. This is just what Putnam county don't want and the Putnam county sheriff therefore failed to reply agreeing to come and get the woman. Mr. Ader came to Greencastle to urge his case in person, but he was not successful. Della will either have to stand trial in Hendricks or go free.

Mrs. Jane VanGorder, the mother of Harry VanGorder of this city died Friday at her home at North Bend, Ohio. She was buried Sunday at Cleaves, Ohio.

TO HAVE MODEL ROAD BED

The work of rock-ballasting the Big Four railroad from Indianapolis to Terre Haute has already been started and Putnam County will share in the benefits of the work in that all the stone to be used on the road will be produced by the Ohio and Indiana Stone quarries just west of the city. A dispatch from Terre Haute contains the following:

The New York Central Company began Monday to rock-ballast the double track roadbed from Terre Haute eastward toward Indianapolis. One hundred and twenty laborers were put to work Monday by the Big Four.

The ballast makes the finest railroad bed in the world, so say railroad officials, and outlays by far all other substances. The company has made acquisition of special service from the limestone quarries at Greencastle and the contract calls for twenty-five carloads of stone daily to the point of ballasting.

The stone will extend over the face of the roadbed, or about 20 feet in width, and the coating will be laid six inches deep. The work this season will be pushed as far as Coal Bluff, resumed next year and carried to Indianapolis. Months will be required to complete the ballasting to Coal Bluff.

PEOPLE TIRED OF PROMISES

BUT WHAT CAN TAFT DO TO STOP THE DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDES.

'REGULARS' GET COLD FEET

WASHINGTON, April 26:—One! Two! Three! Four! Five! Six! Seven! Eight!

This is the number of standpat Republicans who have discovered in almost as many days that their health is in a far more delicate condition than they ever dreamed of. And those who have not concluded that the climate here in Washington is bad, have decided that they are too poor to sacrifice more of their time in serving the country at the ridiculously low salary of $20 a day, which runs along on Sundays and holidays as well as week days, summer and winter, regardless of whether the congressman is making laws in Washington or is at home looking after his political fences.

Standpat Senators who have declared they will not accept reelection are Aldrich of Rhode Island, Hale of Maine and Flint of California.

Standpat Representatives who will not be candidates this fall are: Mr. Lowden of Illinois, Dawson of Iowa and Huff, Reynolds and Cooper of Pennsylvania.

Many other standpatters are afraid to face their constituents after having voted for the Payne-Aldrich Bill. As a result of the Democratic landslides in the Massachusetts and New York special election, the colony of "coldfeet" will grow every week up to the time of the holding of the primaries.

Apparently with the hope of preventing further desertions, President Taft is reported to have promised that during his next trip west he would jettison downward revision of the tariff.

"The Republican party will bid for the country's endorsement in the coming Congressional elections by promising a revision of the tariff along scientific and accurate lines," states an article in a Washington newspaper which appears to have been inspired at the White House. "The promise will come from the lips of the President himself. Mr. Taft will make the statement on one of his forthcoming trips into the west that he will have a tariff commission which will enable him to make recommendations to Congress for alterations in those schedules which work hardships on the masses of the people. The party leaders rely on this move to win the votes of the country."

By what process of reasoning the party leaders base the belief that such a promise, even from President Taft, would "win the votes of the country," the article does not state. Mr. Taft promised revision downward over and over again the campaign preceding his election, and then signed a bill providing for upward revision.

Reports from all parts of the U. S. indicate that the people want no more promises from anyone at this time. What they want is an opportunity to go to the polls and register their disapproval of the party that betrayed their interests in the present session of Congress.

It was shown conclusively during the framing of the Payne-Aldrich law that the Republicans never intended to revise the tariff downward. They had made their campaign of 1908 with funds subscribed by the tariff trusts. This means that revision upward was bought and paid for before Congress ever convened.

Robert Eavns and sons, Charles and Harry have been painting.

COURT CLOSES TILL FRIDAY

Judge Rawley and Attorneys Will Have Chance to Attend the State Convention.

A second day of the April term of the Putnam Circuit Court resulted in the disposal of a few cases and the attending to a few minor details in others. Judge Rawley left at 10:45 for his home at Brazil and adjourned court until Friday, that all the attorneys and officials who desired to do so could attend the state convention.

The petition of Bertha Shoptaugh vs. Benjamin Shoptaugh to sell real estate was heard by the court and it was found that Benjamin Shoptaugh is a person of unsound mind and is the owner of personal property and real estate. Gilbert Sinclair was appointed guardian with bond in the sum of $2500 which was filed and approved.

In the case of John T. Edwards vs. Frank E. Poor et al, opinion of the Appellate Court was ordered spread of record.

In the case of John L. McCollum et al vs. Elmina Johnson et al a motion of the plaintiff to have the defendants to produce certain papers for inspection and use in the trial, was sustained by the court.

The case of Francis M. Iddings vs. Germa Michael et al was continued.

MAKES A BIG COLLECTION

County Treasurer Miller Breaks All Previous Records of the Office in Collection of Taxes.

On Tuesday County Treasurer Jasper Miller broke all previous records of the office as well as all his own record in the collection of taxes. The amounts collected during the day aggregated about $39,000, most of which was due the county from the Vandalla, Big Four, Monon and C. H. & D. Railroads. The Vandalla and Big Four assessments were the heaviest, the Vandalla paying about $10,000. The interurban has not yet paid its taxes and another big wad will come from them about the last of the week. The coincidence of all the team roads paying on the same day is an unusual one and is the reason of Tuesday being a record-breaking day for the treasurer.
